No Free Liquids! Brent Industries, Inc. will not accept containers/sorbents that have unabsorbed "free liquids", and will assess a processing/handling charge. The EPA prohibits acceptance of containers holding free liquids, defined as other than circumstantial separations inherent in the transportation process.

Do Not pour unwanted excess liquids into containers of absorbents. It is a violation of EPA Hazardous Waste Management Regulations, codified at 40 CFR Part 260 "Standards for Generators of Hazardous Wastes".

Note:

Drums containing unabsorbed "free liquids" or non-polypropylene absorbents will be returned to the shipper at a cost of $2.00 per pound plus applicable freight charges.
